THE EXPLOSIVES

The Pursuit of knowledge has become the fire

by which our lives are cast:
our futures are at stake.

Speed is the non-dimensional medium into which we hurl our lives in an effort to outrace time.

Love, for us, is something new. It changes from time to time (going steady, playing the field), but it is an ever-present element. The future will bring more of its joys and sorrows into our lives.

The Search for meaning and relevance is a story of confusion, frustration, and loneliness. It is even more one of hope and renewed faith in God.

The Big Beat speaks a nonverbal language to our emotions and our feet. It says "You belong!" but best of all, it belongs only to us and our time.

Spirit is the inner dynamite which stirs us to action. It is the spark which holds our promise for the future. Someday its flame will be the power of the world.

Student Administration Assists Faculty

This year's lab assistants, under the direction of Tyndall Lewis, have done much to aid the science department. David Eason has served as business manager for the department. He is in charge of keeping records and orders for materials. The lights in the lab have burned many nights, as these students have spent extra time in assisting the department.

"Honk, honk" is a familiar sound for the bus drivers who guide their clumsy buses through circuitous routes each day. Among the duties they perform are keeping accurate mileage records and keeping their buses clean. These students accept great responsibility in performing this essential task and what do they get in return?—a smile of relief on a freezing morning and a well-deserved monthly check.

Marshals

Honor and Service - Interchangeable

Serving as marshals in graduation exercises were Julia Mewborn, Susan Darden, Robbie Eason, David Eason, Jane Darden, Frank Lewis, Henry Jefferson, Jimmy Wooten, Sue Joyner, and Janice Calhoun.

The selection of these marshals was in accordance with their scholastic averages, which were required to be 92 or above.

Belinda Kilpatrick, chief marshal, and Margaret Andrews, assistant chief, were responsible for leading the seniors during all commencement exercises.

Qualities of Those Selected

Students Honored for Special Talents

Louis Willoughby was named to the All-Conference football team. George Moore acquired a position on the All-County team, while Lester Wells and Louis received honorable mention.

Louis Willoughby, Lester Wells, George Moore, Wayne Vernelson, and Jimmy Hillard hold conference records in track.

In boys' basketball, George Moore and Lester Wells made the All-Conference team. Lester also received All-Tournament. As for the girls, Linda Allen made All-Conference while Sarah Helms and Linda made the All-Tournament.

In golf, Jimmy Hillard received second place in the state qualifying match.

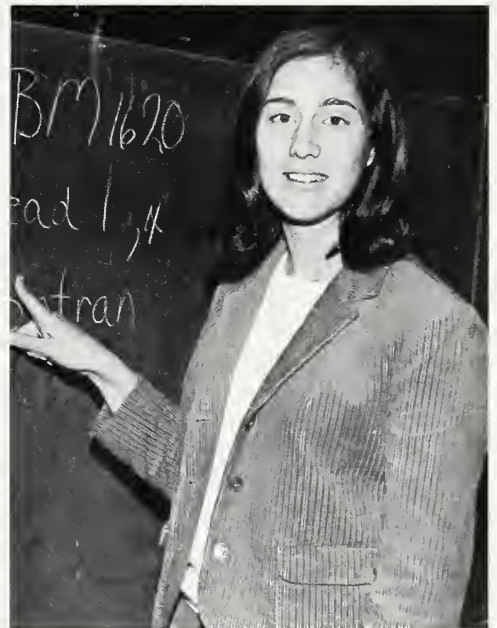

Each year four rising seniors are chosen to attend Boys' and Girls' State.

This year Mary Lang and Deborah Walston attended Girls' State in Greensboro which was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Danny Thomas and Hayes Petteway were selected to attend Boys' State in Winston-Salem which was sponsored by the American Legion.

Mary Lang received the Good Citizen Award which is presented annually to a rising senior girl by the local DAR Chapter.

Belinda Kilpatrick attended the Governor's School of N. C. Also she is a National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalist.

Leaders Direct Students' Energies

The Student Government Association provides an opportunity for students to practice self-government on the high school level. This is accomplished through a Student Council which includes the officers elected by the student body and two representatives from each homeroom. The Council is advised by Mr. Sam Worthington and led by President Danny Thomas; vice-president, Jimmy Moore, secretary, Mary Lang; treasurer, Jimmy Moore; and reporters, Frank Lewis and Bobby Lovic. This year the Council has completed the school's first handbook and sponsored Homecoming and a drive to send school supplies to soldiers in Viet Nam.

Serving and Meeting the Challenge

The Evelyn Joyner Chapter of the National Honor Society was formed in 1963 in honor of former teacher Mrs. Evelyn R. Joyner.

The purpose of the organization is to challenge students who have displayed superior scholastic ability to seek the best in education. Students elected to the Society must have a 90 average and maintain it each semester; they must display qualities of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. The club is advised by Miss Elizabeth Edwards, Mrs. Mary Moore, and Mr. Lewis Lawrence. The officers include: Mary Lang, president; Jimmy Wooten, vice-president; Dianne Stox, secretary; Margaret Andrews, treasurer; and Sue Mitchell, reporter.

Leaders of Tomorrow's Economy

The Future Business Leaders of America provides students interested in commerce an outlet for pursuing opportunities open in this area.

The club is advised by Mrs. Betty Fulford and Mrs. Barbara Wooten. The officers include Marie Johnson, president; Angie Owens, vice-president; Jackie Allen, secretary; Blanche O'Neal, treasurer; Linda Letchworth, historian; and Ann Wilkerson, reporter.

Down to Earth Ambition

One way for agriculture students to develop their interests and skills is through the Future Farmers of America. The club provides opportunity to engage in competition in various aspects of agriculture training. The club is advised by Mr. E. P. Bass and led by president, Steve Hardison; vice-president, Ricky Burnette; secretary, Phillip Walston; treasurer, Wayne Vernelson; reporter, Danny Tugwell; sentinel, Glenn Shirley; and Chaplain, Kenneth Ward.

Practical Approach to Family Needs

Prospective homemakers may gain experience in techniques of home economics through the Future Homemakers of America. The club encourages its members to seek beyond what is offered in high school courses. It is advised by Miss Elsie Seago and led by President Patricia Starling; Vice-President, Pauline Stancil; Secretary, Doris Sugg; Treasurer, Donna Tyson; Reporter, Jean Little; and Photographer, Historian, Katie Heath.

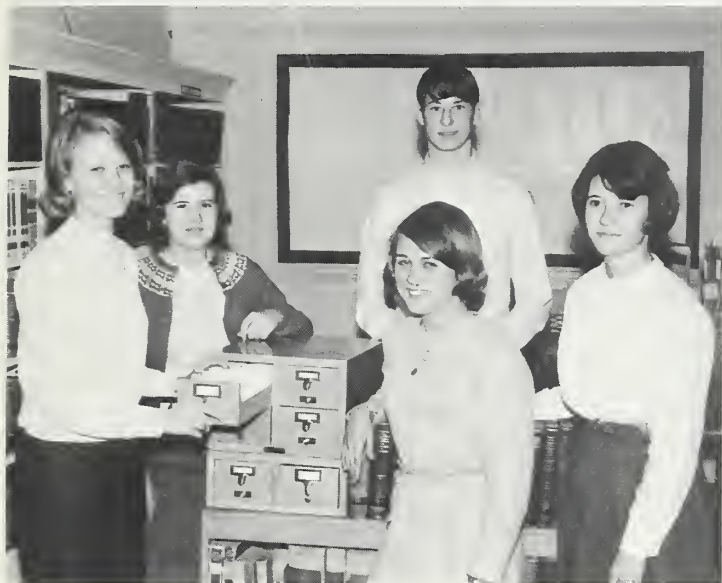

Taught Today to Teach Tomorrow

Busy with preparations for a career, members of the Future Teachers of America explore the possibilities of teaching. Through informative programs, they discover aspects of training, problems, and rewards of such a career. The club is advised by Mrs. Pat Hart and led by Linda Allen, president; Janice Calhoun, vice president; Phyllis Griffis, secretary; and Ila Sermons, treasurer.

Keepers of the Keys of Knowledge

The Library Club, undoubtedly one of the most active clubs in the high school, assists Mrs. Beverly Batchelor, librarian, in operating the high school library. Student assistants perform such tasks as operating the circulation desk, cataloging books and magazines, taking inventory, and keeping the library in order. Members gain valuable knowledge through their experiences.

The club is a member of the North Carolina High School Library Association. It is led by Verona Dixon, President; Hazel Gay, vice-president; Kathy Wooten, secretary; Jones Fuquay, treasurer; and Linda Meeks, treasurer.

Outstanding in Leadership,

"Look to Keyette and you'll find, tomorrow's leaders of mankind," is a line from the Keyette Song.

It may be an overstatement, but it does express the ideals of the club. The Keyette Club, consisting of junior and senior girls chosen according to character, scholarship, leadership, co-operation and participation, does seek to instill in its girls the qualities of service which develop into leadership.

The club is advised by Mrs. Pat Hart and Miss Elizabeth Edwards.

Officers include: Deborah Walston, president; Kinney Hart, vice-president; Cherry Hardison, secretary; Martha McDavid, treasurer; Julia Mewborn, reporter; and Mary Lang, song leader.

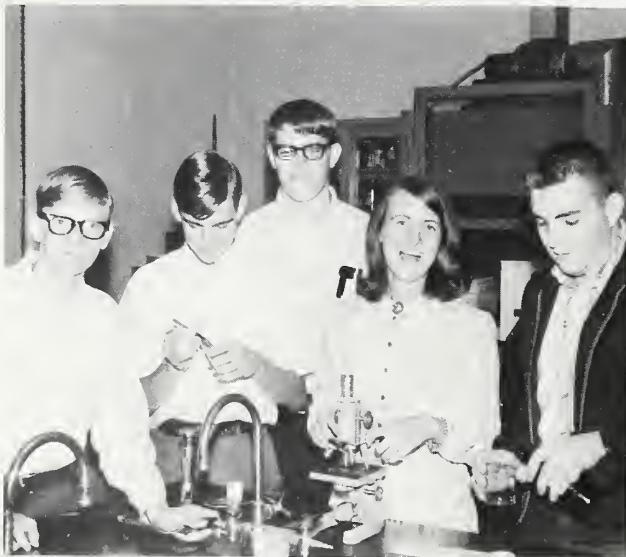

Scholarship, Participation, Cooperation

Spurred on by its promise to serve, the Key Club utilizes the differing qualities of its members. Chosen for attitudes, scholarship, character, and participation, the members consider it an honor to be able to contribute their talents to the Club. Advised by Mr. Allen Benfield, the Club is a member of Key Club International. It is led by Hayes Petteway, president; Danny Thomas, vice-president; Jimmy Moore, secretary; and John Lewis, treasurer.

Nature's Secrets Lure Them

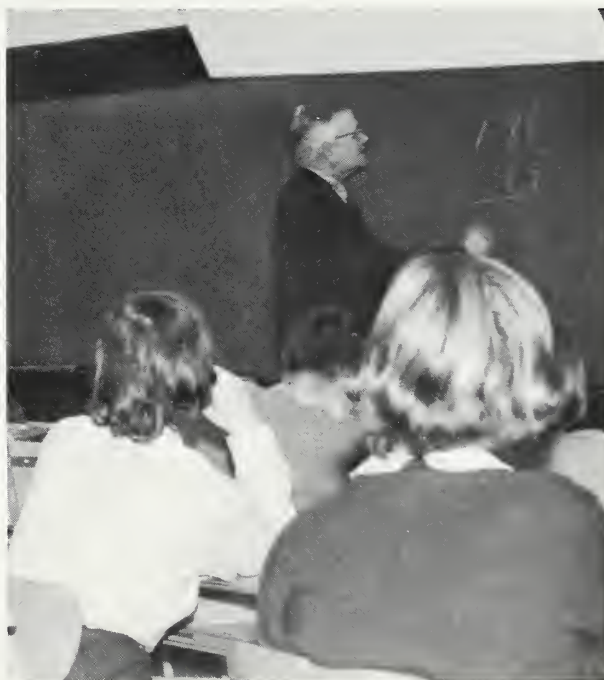

The Science Clubs, Jr. and Sr., make up the largest and one of the most active clubs in high school. The Sr. Science Club is sponsored by Mrs. Lurline Wheless and led by David Eason, president; Harvey Winstead, vice-president; Carl Tyer, secretary; Julia Mewborn, treasurer; and Buster Nanney, reporter. The Jr. Science Club is sponsored by Mr. L. A. Harris and is led by John Eason, president; Laura Lee Turnage, vice-president; Valencia Willoughby, secretary; and Linda Proctor, reporter.

A World of Practical Abstraction

Analytically inclined students pursue the realm from googleplexes to derivatives through the Math Club. The club endeavors to provide its members with programs on all forms of mathematical computation.

The club is advised by Mrs. Hope Rollins and Mrs. Mary Moore. Officers include Junior Lewis, President; Jimmy Wooten, Vice-President; Hazel Gay, Secretary; and Sue Joyner, Treasurer.

Interpretations Spark Response

The Dramatics Club members of Farmville work toward a mastery of the Thespian art and show the abilities they have learned in several productions during the year. "The Dancers" was presented after Christmas, and at least one more one-act play was planned for the year.

Maybe it was pretty far off Broadway, but director Lewis Lawrence and an enthusiastic group enjoyed it all, even when they had to be prompted.

Training for the Ensuing Challenge

"Work, work, work" is not an uncommon saying among members of the DECA CLUB since that's exactly what they do. Members of the club are involved with the Distributive Education program initiated last year. Among the projects they have completed this year is a survey to indicate interest in a bakery in Farmville.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Tony Warren and led by Bobby Corbett, president; Don Jefferson, vice-president; Barbara Corbett, secretary; and Janie Bundy, treasurer.

Filling Us In on the Action

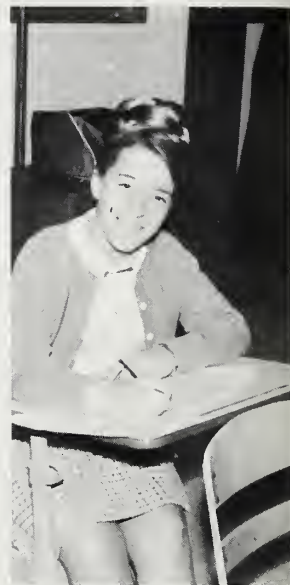

Hard work and inspirations of creativity characterize the News 'n' Views Staff which publishes the five-page paper each six weeks. The editors include: Martha McDavid and Linda Allen, co-editors; Deborah Walston, managing editor; Margaret Andrews, Judy Moore, Angie Owens, assistant editors; Ila Sermons, sports editor; Mary Ann Peele, feature editor; Cherry Hardison, humor editor; Verona Dixon, copy editor; and Kinney Hart, exchange editor. It is advised by Mr. Lewis Lawrence.

Slaving, Racing, Hoping, and Finally . . .

Sparked by the power of its theme, this year's Archway staff has attempted to create a yearbook of which the students of Farmville may be proud, and to portray the youth of FHS in a unique manner. Led by Margaret Andrews and Belinda Kilpatrick, the staff has fought its way to the deadline and to the completion of its "aggregate impressions of life at FHS."

Glee Club

Impressions Bubble into Melody

"Jingle, tingle, jingle, tingle" are familiar sounds which come from the lunchroom each day as forty-one talented students succeed in creating melody. The Glee Club is directed by Mr. Gene Narmour, from East Carolina College. Lou Tyson serves as accompanist for the group.

Rhythm Marches With the Big Sound

Arrayed in brilliant new uniforms, the Farmville High School Band pranced through another marching season under the superb direction of Mr. William A. Glasgow. Traveling to Ayden and Greene Central, the band performed a total of eleven half-time programs under the command of Lukie Deal, drum major. The marching band is composed of thirty-three players, five majorettes, and seventeen members of the drill team. The Concert Band boasts forty-four members and has engaged in playing numerous scores during its season.

Flashing Entertainment

This year's majorettes spiced up half-times and parades with a dash of colorful entertainment.

Long hours of practice and new uniforms characterized the squad.

The high-steppers, under the leadership of chief Belinda Kilpatrick, are Janice Thompson, assistant chief; Anna Gardner, Cherry Hardison, and Betsy Lapp.

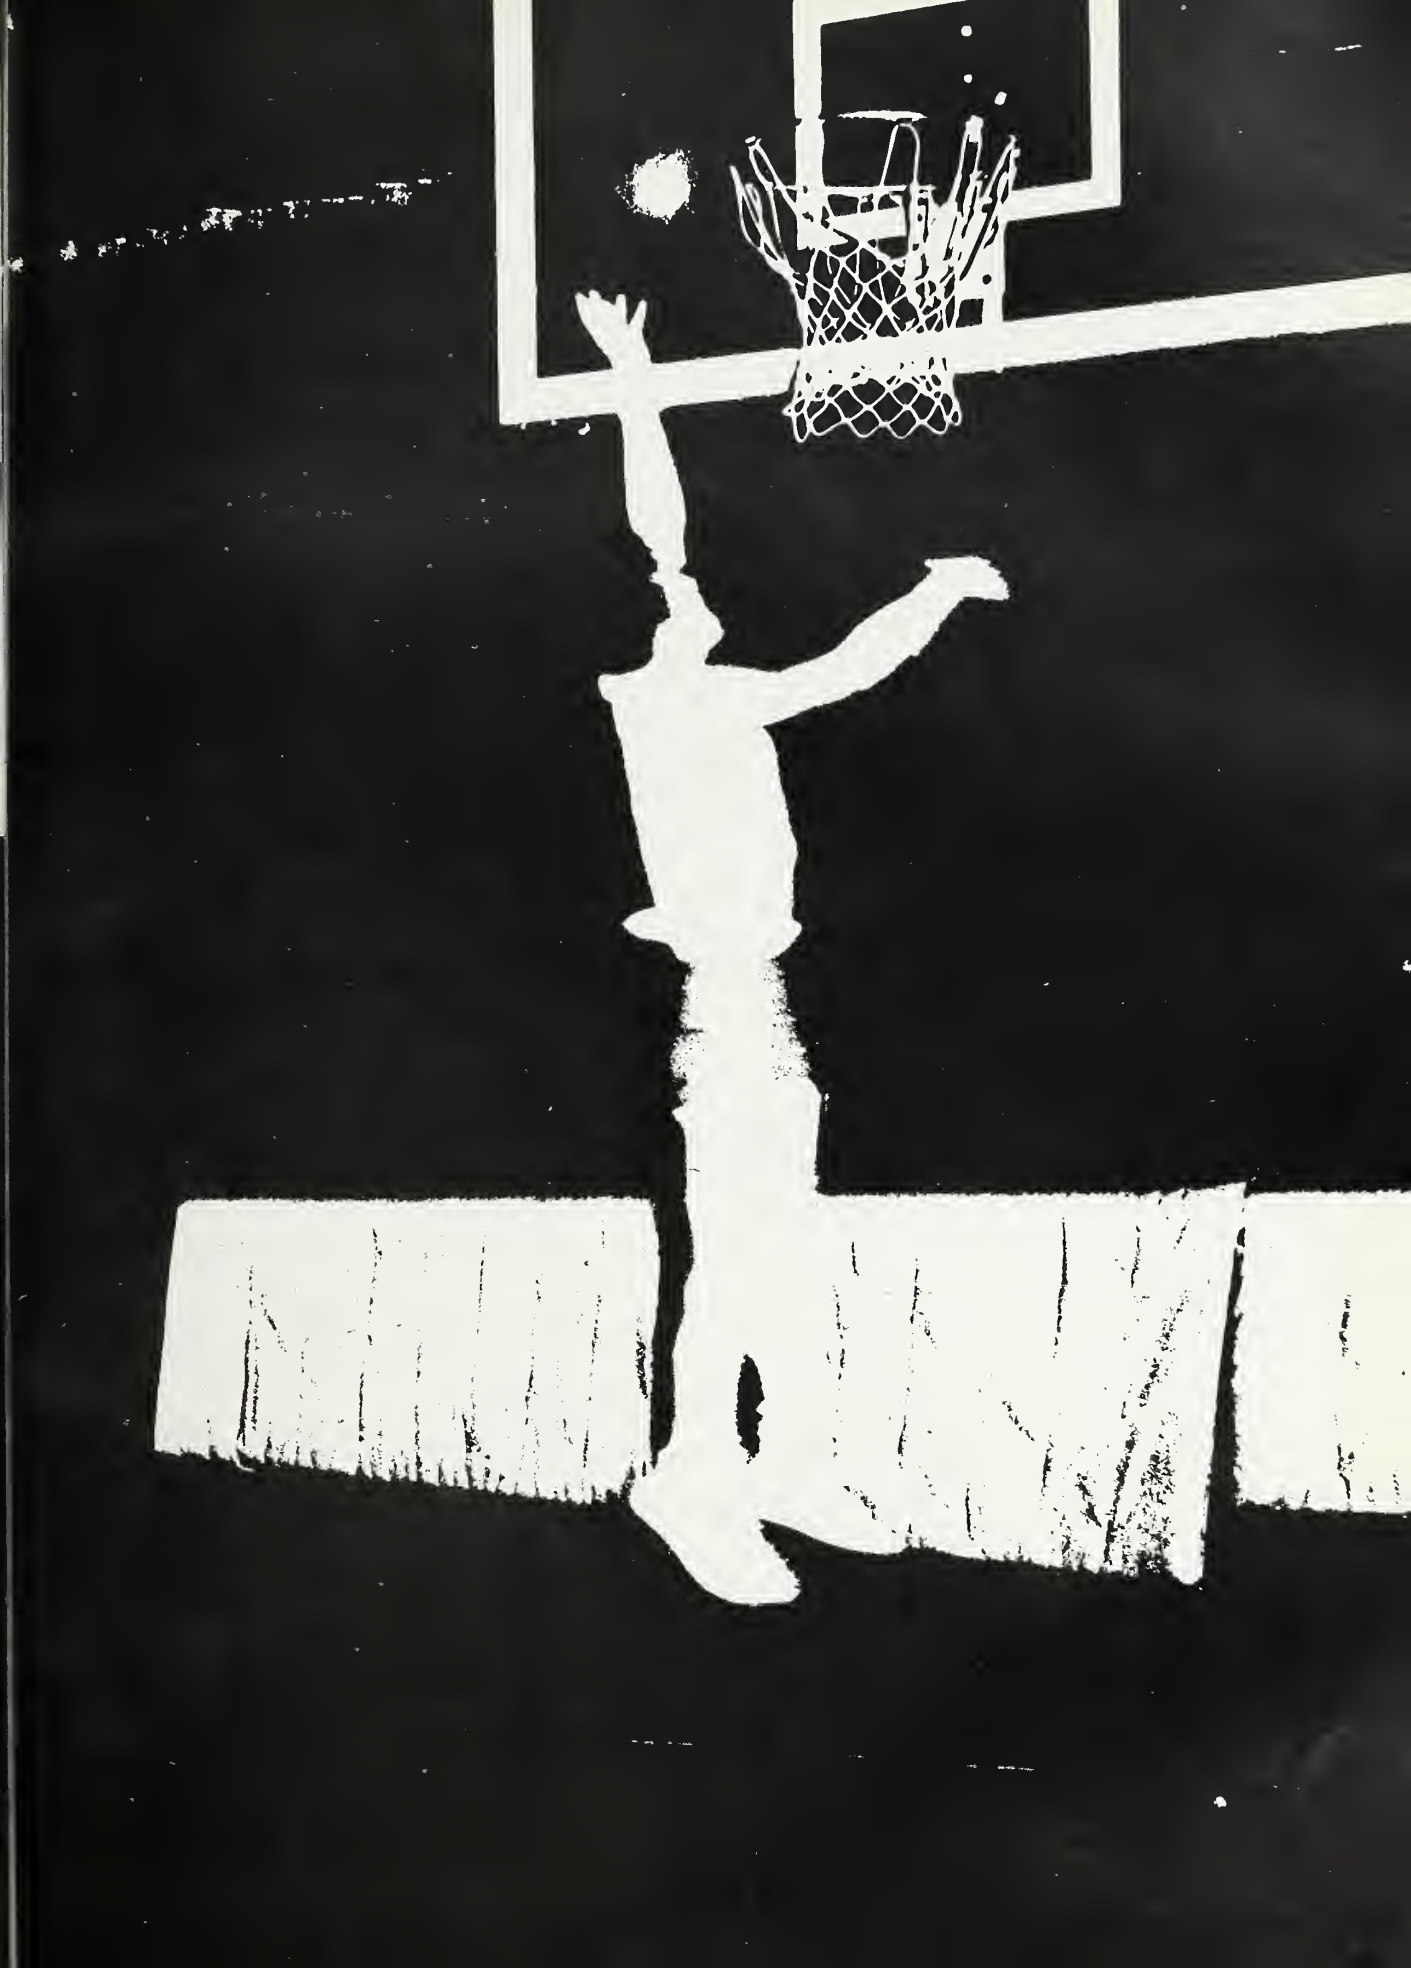

Colorful Corps Enliven Halftimes

Precision marching, showy routines, new uniforms—the drill team boasted all of this during its second year of adding sparkling variety to the band's performances.

Lovely Mrs. Pat Woodside sponsored the team consisting of Jackie Newsome, chief; Carol Smith, assistant chief; and fifteen more lively prancers.

Headed by Ila Sermons and aided by Mrs. Carroll Wooten, this year's cheering squad has done an outstanding job supporting Red Devil teams. The squad, composed of eight girls other than Ila and mascot Sandy Fulford, has gone all out to kindle both spirit and sportsmanship in spectators as well as players. Sponsored for the first time, the cheerleaders have added a demerit system to insure utmost participation in the squad. Their energy and pep have been unflinching as they have given undying support to the various teams.

Red Devil Gridders Explode with Energy

Action and energy have characterized this year's Red Devils as they have met their foes. The injury-plagued team have never yielded their spirit along the season's road, and they are well deserving of spectators' praise.

The 1966 Red Devils ended the season with a 5-5 record. Under the guidance of Head Coach Elbert Moye and Assistant Coach Carroll Wooten, the Devils won their first five outings. But after a 32 to 6 pasting by archrival Ayden and a rash of injuries, the Devils never regained their early season form and lost their last games. The future is bright, however, for next year, with experienced players returning at all positions.

The offense was led by the powerful running of seniors Louis Willoughby and Lester Wells and sophomore George Moore. Sophomore Henry Jefferson offered strong blocking from his tackle position.

Outstanding defenders were seniors Jackie Moye, Tony Murphrey, Hayes Petteway; juniors George Thomas, and sophomore Mike Taylor.

Farmville	6	Ayden	32
Farmville	0	North Lenoir	12
Farmville	13	Greene Central	32
Farmville	13	Four Oaks	19
Farmville	0	Northern Nash	19

This year's Red Devil cagers, under Coach Allen Benfield for the first time, proved to be a ready opponent. The team had several narrow escapes, a few heartbreaking losses, and a couple of overtimes to keep them on edge.

Twice the team was kept alert by Charles B. Aycock. The Devils took the opening decision by a 48 to 46 score, but fell in an overtime when they traveled to Aycock's home court.

North Lenoir also gave the basketeers a scare when they invaded the Devil's home court. The Farmville team was behind by one at the end of the first quarter and still trailed by a point at the half. North Lenoir drew out their lead to six by the end of the third period of action. The Devils then came alive and hit for twenty points in the final quarter to squeak by with a score of 54 to 50.

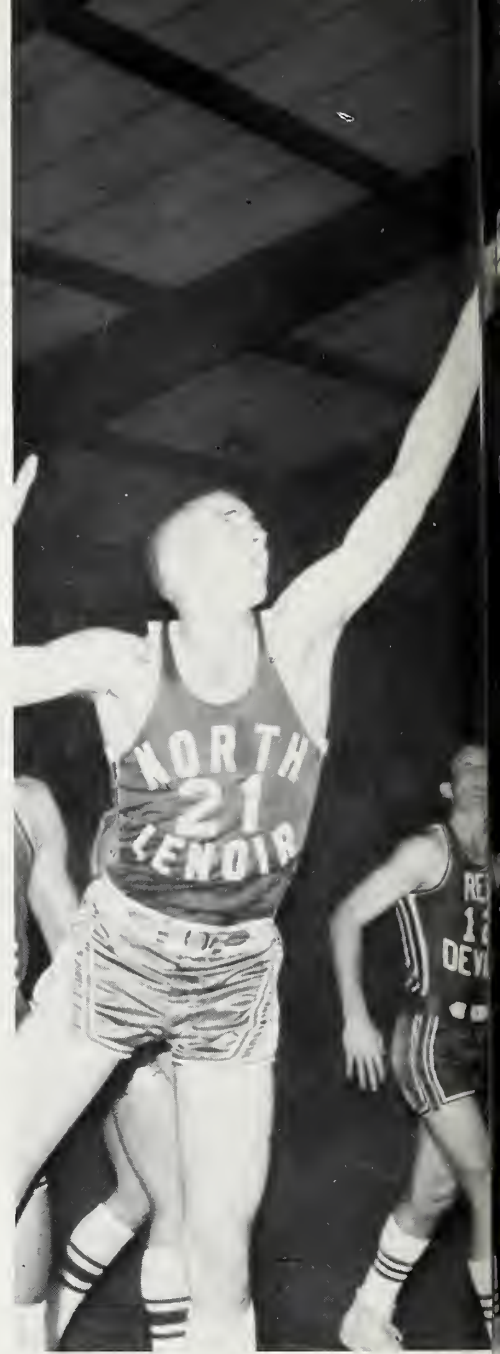

Devils Run Rampant

Later in the season the Red Devils played a hair-raising game against Greene Central. The nip and tuck battle found FHS a point behind at the end of the first quarter. The half ended with the margin of difference remaining the same. Greene Central then made a bid for glory as they drew away from the home team by five at the end of the third period. But the Devils bounced back to tie it up and play was forced into an overtime. Farmville controlled the tap and played control ball. It looked as if a double overtime would be necessary, since both teams seemed unable to score. Finally a Greene Central player fouled Farmville's Al Drake. Al tossed in the free throw and the Devils emerged triumphant by a score of 59 to 58.

The team has proved to be a good representative of the school as it displayed the sportsmanship and fair play of a truly great team.

Lady Devils Prove To Be Powerful Foes

This year's Lady Devils have shown themselves to be a power that is to be reckoned with. Under their new coach, Carroll Wooten, the cagers rolled up four straight victories to start off the season. After dropping the next two to North Lenoir and North Nash, the team once again went on the rampage and racked up even more victories and a few losses.

The fact that half a season was successfully completed without a star scorer is testimony to the teamwork displayed by the girls. A strong first string and a strong bench have gradually emerged from the girls who made the team.

The games were not all calm wins or losses. Several times the teams went right down to the wire. The third game of the season, against Winterville, was such a contest. The Lady Devils won that one by a score of 34 to 30. Another such meeting came when the Farmville team traveled to Ayden to take on their traditional rivals. After a nerve-racking game, the Devils came out on top by a slim two point margin, downing the Tornados by a score of 31 to 29.

An exciting season and an exciting team will long be remembered, not only for their victories but also for their teamwork and their sportsmanship. This year's team has been a fine representative of the ideals of Framville High.

Exertion Bursts into Success

The track team of the 1966 season was really explosive as it worked its way to a conference championship. The cindermen suffered only one defeat, which was to Grifton, a nonconference opponent.

The success of the team may be attributed in part to the number of conference record holders who helped compose it. The records for the 220 and the 100 yard dashes are held by Louis Willoughby, who also helped Jimmy Hillard, George Moore, and Lester Wells capture the conference record for the 880 relay. Glenn Letchworth holds the record for the discus. These are the members that received special laurels. However, without the hard work and determination of an entire team, plus a good coach, a winning team would not have been possible.

Bat Men Swing into Action

The 1966 Red Devil baseball team got their first taste of the 2-A Eastern Plain Conference as they compiled a 8-6 season. The "diamond Devils" won their first game against Four Oaks by a score of 10 to 5, but they lost the next two matches against Greene Central and North Johnson by scores of 3 to 11 and 2 to 11, respectively. The team then stormed back with a 8 to 1 victory over Hobpton, only to drop the following two games against North Lenoir and Charles B. Aycock by scores of 6 to 8 and 2 to 13. Once again the Devils rallied against New Hope to take a 4 to 2 decision. Then, as if following a pattern, they lost the next two matches against Four Oaks and North Johnson by respective scores of 3 to 5 and 4 to 11. The team then broke loose on a rampage that saw the remaining five opponents fall before them. Hobpton fell at 10 to 2, Greene Central by a score of 4 to 3, North Lenoir by 7 to 6, Charles B. Aycock at 6 to 4, and New Hope by a 7 to 6 score.

Winging Their Way into the Spotlight

As golf season rounds the corner, the FHS team swings into action under Coach Allen Benfield. As golf coach for the first time this year, Mr. Benfield will be aided by the services of the Farmville Country Club pro, Ken Worthington. When the season gets underway, there will be five lettermen returning to compete for the number one spot on the team. They will be pushed hard by the other team members as they also compete for the number one ranking. The team is looking forward to a good year this year. Last year they sent a player, Jimmy Hillard, to the state match, and this year they hope to continue their excellent showing in the sport called golf.

Training for the Future

Coached by Allen Benfield, the Farmville Junior Varsity Team ended with a record of three wins and three losses. The J.V.'s won over Robersonville once and Ayden twice. Under the overpowering forces of Grifton, North Lenoir, and Robersonville, the team fell to defeat.

The J.V. cheerleaders gave much spirit and support to their team. This year Carol Smith and Valencia Willoughby, co-heads, led eight vivacious girls in the cheers. They are as follows: Laura Turnage, Becky Dickerson, Arlene Mosley, Kathy Owens, Paula Batts, Becky Perkins, Leslie Smith, and Sarita Hardy.

East-Breaking Five Find Success

Coach Elbert Moyer did an outstanding job this year, molding the Junior Varsity team into an exciting, cohesive unit. In the beginning of the season, play was frequently ragged and the boys were inconsistent, but the team found itself during mid-season and won its last nine games, ending the season with an overall record of 10 wins and 4 losses. Coach Moyer's fast-breaking five was certainly the best Junior Varsity group in many years. Their performances frequently pleased the crowds as much as they did the Varsity. The big men up front, Charles Purvis, George Burnett, and Charles Lehmann, did most of the rebounding and scoring, while Neal Walston, Fred Sauls, and Robbie Eason led the floor play. The bench was strong, too, and little difference could be seen when the substitutes entered the lineup.

This is not the end;
It is not even the beginning of the end;
Rather, it is the end of the beginning.
